

What makes TPP a great place to work?

At TPP, we genuinely believe in creating an environment where people enjoy coming into work. Here are some of the things that make us special:

Our History

TPP is an established and respected name within the market. We've won several awards and are Investors in People accredited and REC Audited.

Our Principles

We don't have a typical recruitment agency culture and our values match those of the sector we support.

Our Offices

We work in a bright, modern office in a fantastic City of London location and have a busy and lively work atmosphere.

Competitive Commission

We pay competitive salaries and have one of the best rates of commission in the recruitment industry.

Flexitime Scheme

Our innovative flexitime scheme lets you choose your starting and finishing times, putting you in control of your working hours to help balance your work-life needs.

Training

We offer ongoing specialist and bespoke training and development to progress your career with TPP.

Support

We have dedicated staff to offer in-house HR, IT, accounts and marketing support.

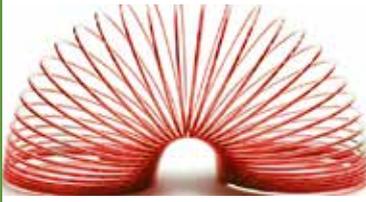

We also regularly invest in new technology.

Free Breakfast

As well as tea, coffee and other hot drinks, we also get a selection of fresh fruit and bread supplied each day. We like to keep our consultants healthy and happy!

What makes TPP a great place to work?

Flexible Benefits

Employees get points to spend on a range of benefits, including additional holiday days, clothing vouchers, gym membership, pension contributions and many more...

Extra Holiday

Staff accrue one additional day of holiday for each complete year of employment.

Birthday Leave

Everyone gets their birthday (or the closest working day) as an extra day off.

Volunteering Leave

You'll get 5 days paid leave to dedicate time to a charity of your choice – we believe that volunteering is a crucial part of supporting the third sector.

High Achievers Lunch

We hold quarterly lunches in top City of London restaurants for consultants who exceed their targets.

Competitions

We have regular competitions (recent prizes being corporate day at Ascot and lunch at the Chef's table at the Savoy).

Social Events

We hold regular social events for the whole company, plus a fantastic Christmas party!

Christmas

Our office is closed over the Christmas break to make sure everyone enjoys the holidays.

Fantastic Fridays

We celebrate successful weeks with drinks on a Friday afternoon and regular dress down days.

Working from Home

Depending on seniority, staff get the option to work from home for a set number of days per year.
