

Education & Training

TPP Education offers a range of specialist recruitment services to the not for profit sector, and has a track history of providing highly skilled and experienced education professionals to a variety of charities and other non profit organisations.

If you have a requirement for specialist staff who can develop a programme of educational output or deliver your message through a variety of access points, TPP Education can help. We can supply all levels of education and training staff on a temporary, interim or permanent basis, often at very short notice.

Disciplines we cover

- Employability and Vocational Education
- Quality
- Curriculum, Qualifications & Assessments
- Projects & Programmes
- Training & CPD
- Student Services

Charities currently registered to deliver education and training

86,884

Source: Charity Commission

“TPP Education & Training are our agency of choice for recruiting across Bounce Back. From Tutors within the prisons to training supervisors out in the community as well as influential Head Office Staff they have been able to truly understand our goals and dreams and discover others who share these. They are involved in Bounce Back as an organisation and not just as a “client”, building relationships with our managers and front line staff alike.

They are experts in their fields with the Education consultants proactively sourcing the right Tutors for our students, highly qualified in trade and personality to inspire and engage our students into aspiring to become professionals and experts in the Painting and Decorating field.”

CEO, Bounce Back Project

Contact us

020 7198 6090

education@tpp.co.uk

www.tppeducation.co.uk

Education & Training