

Careers in fundraising include a wide variety of different fundraising jobs and attract jobseekers from many different backgrounds. Fundraising jobs offer an extremely rewarding career path for anyone motivated by income generation, networking, relationship development and the challenge of increasing funding opportunities for the not-for-profit sector.

Jobs in fundraising often require enthusiastic, target- & results-driven employees with a sincere passion and commitment towards the cause they represent. The skills set required for fundraising jobs varies depending on the specific fundraising stream; generally the charities we represent require previous similar experience. For certain fundraising jobs, we may consider candidates with transferable skills such as corporate sales, account management, excellent written and oral communication skills and above all a passion for what you do.

Disciplines we cover

- Community
- Corporate
- Direct Marketing
- Events
- Head of Fundraising
- Legacy
- Major Donor
- Trust/ Statutory
- Director of Fundraising

Average salary for Charity Fundraising professionals

£39,947

Source: TPP Salary Survey 2017

See more at:
www.tpp.co.uk/salary-surveys

“TPP has always supported us in finding suitable candidates. Ashby Jenkins who works on our roles genuinely tries to understand the roles and produce good candidates.”

Human Resources Coordinator - The Brooke

“TPP always put forward relevant candidates never wasting my time with people that don’t have the skills. This is something most other recruiters do the whole time which is why TPP is always my first point of call.”

Head of Corporate Partnerships - Shelter

Fundraising & Development

Contact us

020 7198 6040

fundraising@tpp.co.uk

www.tppfundraising.co.uk

Regional Fundraising Roles - North, Midlands, North Wales

0191 249 5200

regional@tpp.co.uk

Regional Fundraising Roles - Central & South West, East Anglia, South Wales

0117 360 1317

regional@tpp.co.uk

Fundraising & Development