

Keeping Children Safe in Education: Policy Statement

Uniform Education is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expects all staff and candidates that represent Uniform Education to share this commitment and to be fully aware of the importance of child protection.

Uniform Education strictly adheres to the specific recruitment and vetting checks which must be made on all people who wish to work with children and young persons. These requirements, outlined in the DfE document: Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2016), have statutory force and are clearly incorporated into Uniform Education's "Procedures Manual". Compliance with these guidelines is regularly and closely audited both externally and internally, and through a series of daily reporting processes.

Further, the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 and the Childcare (Disqualification) Regulations 2009 outline specific duties and responsibilities for an employer in relation to barred persons, and to the sharing of information about individuals to the Disclosure and Barring Service. Uniform Education is committed to ensuring that its obligations here are met.
