

Accredited Membership Terms And Obligations

By registering with ECS Resource Group Ltd ('ECS') as an official Accredited Contractor, you are acknowledging our (ECS Resource Group Ltd) obligations to you as a member of our Accredited© team. In addition to this, you are agreeing to your obligations as a Contractor with us, in conjunction with any contract that you are engaged to work via ECS.

1. Terms Used

- I. 'Benefits' refers to the advantages of being an Accredited© contractor with us. Details of these can be found in the secure Accredited© area of our website. These range from priority access to new contract opportunities, social and training events
- II. 'End customers' refers to the customers of our partners
- III. 'Members Club' refers to the group of professionals who have gained the ECS' Accredited© status, by working previous contracts and receiving recommendations following their completion
- IV. 'Membership number' refers to your personal identification number
- V. 'Partners' refers to the client companies of ECS, who we work in partnership with

2. Marketing Materials and Opt-Out

- I. You can opt out from receiving marketing materials from ECS at any point by emailing marketing@ecsrp.co.uk. Simply let us know you would like to opt-out
Please note that by unsubscribing from these communications, you will be unable to enjoy the benefits of being a part of our Accredited© Members Club. We will be unable contact you, therefore you will no longer receive the notification of new contract opportunities, training or social event invitations
- II. Should you choose to unsubscribe from communications but remain on our system, you will still be an Accredited© contractor. Therefore you will still be contacted by your consultant where appropriate
- III. If you have un-subscribed and would like to re-subscribe to receive benefits, you can contact marketing@ecsrp.co.uk at any point to communicate this and opt back in

3. Our Obligation To You

- I. As an Accredited© Contractor, you will receive information on all new relevant opportunities and contracts on a priority basis
- II. ECS will offer a dedicated point of contact throughout your contract to ensure you are supported whilst both on contract for ECS and whilst looking for new opportunities
- III. ECS will provide you with additional benefits, including the following;
 - a. Notifications of upcoming opportunities
 - b. Social events in varying locations
 - c. Relevant content and updates on topics that matter you
 - d. ECS Accredited training events

4. Your Obligation To ECS

- I. Ensure you comply with any contractual obligations whilst working with ECS
- II. Communicate any problems you have whilst on site with ECS to enable us to resolve them
- III. If happy to do so, communicate any feedback to ECS via our 'Voice of the Customer' survey, to enable ECS to improve the service offered