

Responsibility

The Chairman is responsible for communication with analysts, significant stakeholders and the business community in general.

The Company Secretary is responsible for communication with the ASX and other regulatory bodies.

Ambition Web Site

<http://www.ambition.com.au>

The following information is posted to the Ambition web site as soon as practicable after release to the ASX:

- company announcements
- interim and final financial reports
- notice of shareholders' meetings including explanatory text

The following additional information may also be found on the Ambition web site:

- details of senior management
- analyst reports
- charters and policies

Share Registry

<https://www.computershare.com/au>

Ambition's share registry is maintained by Computershare Australia.

Investors may access information relating to their investment by registering on the Computershare web site.

Investors may also download various forms from the Computershare web site, including change of address, share transfer, and request for a replacement certificate.