

"18 months ago, thanks to 2to3days, I found the perfect role. The personal touch, quick response and support I received as a registered mother gave me confidence to reach out to 2to3days as a means to find great talent for AIESEC. The quality and selection of candidates is spot on!"

ABOUT THE COMPANY

AIESEC is a charity organisation existing in over 120 countries. They are the world's largest youth-led organisation and their purpose is to activate youth leadership through facilitating global internship programmes and subsequent immigration of the workforce. AIESEC UK sponsors non-EEA graduates to undertake challenging, cultural work experience with UK employers.

THE BRIEF

"The vacancy that was created from a similar existing role gave us the opportunity to review what we wanted going forward." Jess's ideal candidate was someone who was customer focused, passionate about youth development and willing to bring fresh ideas to the organisation. As such they didn't want to limit their search by offering a traditional 9-to-5 role. "For the right person we were willing to consider a variety of flexible solutions - part time, remote working or even compressed hours."

CANDIDATE QUALITY

"Both the quality and number of applications was excellent – and we weren't swamped by lots of applications that did not match the requirements of the role. We were spoilt for choice and had a variety of shortlisted candidates that were exceptional at the interview stages. I would wholeheartedly recommend 2to3days and wouldn't hesitate to use them for our future recruitment needs."

SUPPORT FOR HIGHLY CAPABLE MOTHERS WORKING FLEXIBLY

Jess believes that being open to flexibility in the work place has enabled AIESEC UK to engage with some exceptional mothers who are experienced professionals, but simply put – want to work flexibly. "New methods and different working patterns are a few of the wonderful benefits that come from the advances in technology today. The fact that AIESEC UK can in some small way support this growing network of highly capable mothers in the workforce is wonderful."

The power of the 2to3days Hood...

"I first came across 2to3days on social media. I registered on the 2to3days website and found such a range of interesting roles - the best was that they were all FLEXIBLE! This is how I got the Office Manager role at AIESEC UK. When we recently identified a need for a new Account Manager, 2to3days was my first port of call."
